Great American Cleanup in Boone County

On Saturday, April 24, join your neighbors in celebrating the Great American Cleanup in Boone County! From 8:30 am to noon, volunteers will gather to clean riverbanks and trashed areas of litter and encourage community pride and environmental stewardship. The Great American Cleanup is nationally coordinated by Keep America Beautiful. Join us and the estimated 3 million people across the country as we clean, beautify, and improve our communities. Location of events:

Rabbit Hash General Store 10021 Lower River Road, Burlington
Please call Kelly Chapman at 334-3629 in advance to notify the site coordinator if you plan to attend.

Giles-Conrad Park River Rd., Hebron
Please call Kelly Chapman at 334-3629 in advance to notify the site coordinator if you plan to attend.

The City of Florence Florence Public Services, 7850 Tanners Lane
Please call Jeremy Kleier at 647-5416 in advance to notify the site coordinator if you plan to attend.

City of Walton City Hall on Main & Church Streets
Please call in Connie Goins at 485-4383 in advance to notify the site coordinator if you plan to attend.

A lunch celebration will be held immediately following these events. Litterbags, bumper stickers and other goodies will be distributed at all the events. T-shirts will be provided to cleanup volunteers as well as gloves and trash bags for the cleanup.

Join us to keep America beautiful one community at a time—volunteer for the Great American Cleanup. For more information, call Kelly or Mary at 859-334-3151 or email at kchapman@boonecountyky.org.
