Great American Cleanup in Boone County

Join the cities and communities of Boone County on Saturday, APRIL 26, 2008 from 8:30 am to noon in celebrating the Great American Cleanup! The Great American Cleanup is nationally coordinated by Keep America Beautiful and is centered on cleaning, beautifying and improving communities. This year is expected to involve close to an estimated 3 million people across the country. The cities, businesses and communities of Boone County have come together to celebrate this event and encourage community pride everyday of the year. Volunteers will clean riverbanks and littered areas in Boone County. Location of events:

Rabbit Hash General Store                      10021 Lower River Road, Burlington
Please call Mary Shinkle at 859-334-3151 in advance to notify the site coordinator if you plan to attend.

The City of Florence                      Florence Public Services, 7850 Tanners Lane
Please call Jeremy Kleier at 859-647-5416 in advance to notify the site coordinator if you plan to attend.

City of Walton    City Hall on Main & Church Streets
Please call in Connie Goins at 859-485-4383 in advance to notify the site coordinator if you plan to attend.

A lunch celebration will be held immediately following these events. Litterbags, bumper stickers and other goodies will be distributed at all the events. T-shirts will be provided to cleanup volunteers as well as gloves and trash bags for the cleanup.

Join us to keep America beautiful one community at a time—volunteer for the Great American Cleanup. For more information, call Mary Shinkle at 859-334-3151 or email at mshinkle@boonecountyky.org.
