May 28, 2009

On Thursday, May 28, 2009 at approximately 1:50 p.m. a head-on traffic collision on Burlington Pike (KY-18) in Belleview, Kentucky sent all four occupants of the two cars to area hospitals; two of them via Air Care.

Kyle Wood, 18 of Belleview, Kentucky was eastbound on Burlington Pike near the Dinsmore Homestead driving a 1996 Honda Civic when he crossed the center line and ran head on into a 2004 Toyota Camry travelling westbound driven by Casandra Urwin, 36 of Belleview, Kentucky. Two passengers in the Camry were Dolores Kenton, 59 of Belleview and Noah Kenton, 3 of Hebron, Kentucky.

Kyle Wood and Dolores Kenton were both flown to University Hospital with reported non life-threatening injuries. Casandra Urwin and Noah Kenton were transported to Saint Elizabeth Hospital (Florence). Noah was secured in a car seat and the other three were wearing their seat belts. Air bags on both cars deployed. Initial indicators are that Wood fell asleep at the wheel.
