August 12, 2009

On Wednesday, August 12, 2009 at approximately 9:00 p.m. a teenage pedestrian was struck by a car as he was crossing at the intersection of U.S.-42 and Mount Zion Road (KY-536) in Union, Kentucky.

The 17 year old teen (name withheld) was transported to Saint Elizabeth Hospital (Florence) with reported life threatening injuries after he was struck crossing U.S.-42 from Mt. Zion. Jason Chisholm, 18 of Florence, Kentucky was driving a 2004 Dodge 4 door passenger car south on U.S.-42 in the curb lane when he collided with the pedestrian.

The Boone County Sheriff's Department Accident Reconstruction Team is investigating the collision. As of this writing there are no preliminary indicators.
