On Friday, October 9, 2009 at approximately 7:40 p.m. a Glencoe, Kentucky man was shot while visiting friends at the Woodspring Apartment complex located at 550 Mount Zion Road near Florence, Kentucky.

Three friends, two visitors & one occupant, were together in an apartment in building 11 when the shooting victim (name withheld) answered a knock at the door. A struggle ensued between him and a man at the door. The suspect apparently shot the one who answered the door. The two remaining in the apartment fled out the patio door.

The victim was transported to University Hospital in Cincinnati, Ohio with reported non life-threatening injuries. Sheriff's investigators and Crime Scene Technician are currently investigating the incident.
