

BOONE COUNTY YOUTH CABINET APPLICATION 2015-2016

sponsored by citi

The Boone County Fiscal Court and RC Durr YMCA are seeking applications for the Boone County Youth Cabinet (BCYC) Program. The program, established by the Boone County Fiscal Court thirteen years ago, helps students develop in the areas of leadership and civic responsibility by offering youth perspectives to the Judge-Executive and Fiscal Court; encouraging teens to become familiar with the legal and judicial process; engaging them in decision-making and service-learning; and demonstrating how youth can influence public policy. The BCYC is now accepting applications to select positions for the 2015-2016 academic school year.

Requirements:

- Junior in high school (2015-2016) and reside in Boone County.
- Must attend monthly planned program activities, most of which are scheduled during the school day hours with some evening and weekend activities. Failure to attend three (3) activities could result in termination from the program.
- All application materials must be postmarked or received by Wednesday, April 1, 2015 at 4:30 p.m. Please mail, fax, e-mail or bring the completed application to the Boone County Human Services Department, P.O. Box 296, 2950 Washington Street, Burlington, Kentucky 41005; phone number (859) 334-3124. (Attention: Laura Pleiman)
- The BCYC Advisory Committee will make the final determination concerning the selection of the students and the Committee's decision is final. All applications become the property of Boone County, and will not be returned.

Please print or type all information on this application. Attached sheets should be typed.
