CLIFF RADEL PRESENTS
THE MOSAIC MURALS
7 PM THURSDAY, MAY 15

Cincinnati Enquirer Reporter
Cliff Radel has been covering the story concerning the fate of the historically significant works of art from the concourse in the Cincinnati Union Terminal, currently installed in CVG’s soon-to-be demolished terminals. He has also researched the individual workers whose likenesses were recreated on the mosaics.

Cliff started his photojournalism career with The Cincinnati Enquirer back in 1995, and has since then earned the title of “Best Columnist” by the Cleveland Press Club and the Associated Press of Ohio, as well as the Gannett newspaper chain. He was also The Enquirer’s popular-music critic for 19 seasons.

He is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati, having received a bachelor’s degree in psychology, a master’s in social psychology, and has completed course work for a Ph.D. His work has also appeared in The New York Times, Chicago Tribune and The Washington Post.

Back copies of selected Northern Kentucky Heritage magazines will be available at our meetings for your donation.
